

AA GRAPEVINE

Supported Solely By Your Participation

WE'RE SELF-SUPPORTING

The AA Grapevine strives to be self-supporting through the sale of the magazine and related items. An important part of self-support at all levels (individual, group, district, area) is to subscribe and purchase books and other materials to assure the Grapevine and La Viña continue to carry the message of Alcoholics Anonymous.

As stated in the AA Service Manual

'AA Grapevine, Inc.'s goal is to be supported by revenues from the purchase of subscriptions and other content-related items. AA Grapevine, Inc. does not accept contributions from individuals or groups. Nor does it accept revenue from ads or membership fees. Instead, it relies on AA groups, committees and individual members who value Grapevine and La Viña in their recovery and in their Twelfth Step work to purchase subscriptions and other content-related materials.'

WE'RE CONFERENCE APPROVED

As Bill W. expressed in his letter to Royal Shepherd in June 1946, "The Grapevine will be the voice of the Alcoholics Anonymous movement." In 1986, the General Service Conference officially recognized Grapevine as the International Journal of Alcoholics Anonymous.

EACH ISSUE of Grapevine is filled with stories of recovery and hope written by members of AA and, on occasion, by friends of AA. The stories are direct and personal, and as varied as the fellowship itself. Grapevine writers come from all walks of life and every generation and geographic area. Each month we offer a current, ongoing view of our beloved fellowship!
